

Candidate for Office

October 30, 2007

Dear Name,

Thank you for volunteering to host a house party for my campaign. House parties are essential because they broaden our base, raise money and encourage people to volunteer. And they are fun and intimate affairs!

With your help, I will (be our next/win re-election to) (office you are seeking) and I will (why you are running)

(Additional message about what you will do once elected)

To help ensure your party's success, we are providing this kit and our help.

Please read this kit with care and confer periodically with my house party coordinator, Name at phone number or email. A few weeks from now, I know you will host a great house party.

Again, thank you for joining our campaign!

(Salutation),

(Candidate for Office)

(for Oregon)

P.S. You can let your guests know that contributions to our campaign qualify for the political contribution credit on your Oregon State Income tax form. Single filers can claim up to $50 and joint filers can claim as much as $100. Everyone qualifies.
