

Issue Campaign

October 30, 2007

Dear Name,

Thank you for volunteering to host a house party for our campaign to (objective campaign is trying to achieve). House parties are essential because they broaden our base, raise money and encourage people to volunteer. And they are fun and intimate affairs!

With your help, we will win!

(Additional message about what winning means to the community and to the bigger picture.)

To help ensure your party's success, we are providing this kit and our help.

Please read this kit with care and confer periodically with our house party coordinator, Name at phone number or email. A few weeks from now, I know you will host a great house party.

Again, thank you for joining our campaign!
